February 2019 Newsletter

THIS ISSUE’S FEATURED ARTICLES:

- Texas Leadership Summit
- Monthly Meeting
- Bevo Bucks
- Scholarships
- Upcoming Events

UPCOMING MEETINGS:

- Thursday, Feb. 7
- Wednesday, March 6
- Monday, April 22
- Wednesday, May 1

The Texas Leadership Summit is a conference designed to help students develop their leadership and networking skills. The conference provides a space for students involved in any leadership role on campus to engage in workshops and break-out sessions designed to enhance their roles as leaders. The summit is on Saturday, Feb. 9 from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. There is a $10 registration fee which will be donated to the Student Emergency Fund.
MONTHLY MEETING

We are kicking February off with our monthly meeting on Feb. 7 at 5:30 p.m. in the Glenn Maloney room (ground floor) in SSB. Join us for some food, fun, and resources that will hopefully support you as the semester progresses. At the meeting, we will be hosting Bridget Gonzalez from the Study Abroad department. Bridget will be sharing some helpful tips and best practices when we are traveling abroad whether as a student or for leisure. She will also go over some of the opportunities available to students. Paige and Noemí will also be passing out sign-up sheets for the spring semester check-in. Paige will be checking in with students with a last name ranging from A-N and Noemí will be checking in with students with a last name from M-Z. As always, please contact Noemí or Paige to set up a makeup meeting if you are not able to make it.

The Role of the Imposter Phenomenon in Ethnic Minority Student Achievement

Please join us on Monday, Feb. 11 for the first University lecture of the spring semester. Dr. Kevin Cokley from the College of Education will be presenting on the imposter phenomenon and how it affects minority students in predominantly white campuses. The lecture will define the imposter phenomenon and discuss it’s role in the academic outcomes and mental health of ethnic minority students. The lecture will take place from 7 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the Texas Union Theatre.
Good news everyone! Bevo Bucks is back and is either in your account or in the process of getting there! Below you can find a list of some places where you can use your bucks. If you are unable to see your bucks or have any further questions about Bevo Bucks, please do not hesitate in contacting Paige or Noemí.

Where to use Bevo Bucks:

- Dunkin' Donuts on Guadalupe
- Einstein Bros. Bagels on Guadalupe
- Campus Computer Store
- Littlefield Patio Cafe
- Cypress Bend Cafe
- Campus Vending Machines
Scholarships

The deadline for continuing and transfer students scholarships application is March 15 by midnight. You can access this application through the CASH tab on UT Direct. Be sure to click on status requirements and choose the “Continuing Scholarship Application” option. Be sure to check your respective departments and colleges for scholarships offered through them. Here are a few outside scholarships to check out:

- Science Systems and Applications, Inc. (SSAI) Scholarship - Deadline: March 15, Amount: $2,000. The scholarship encourages the study of physics among underrepresented groups in science and engineering.
- Fontana Transport Inc. Scholars Program - Deadline March 9, Amount: $5,000. For first generation minority students who are underrepresented in health related fields.
- AASEA Memorial Scholarship - Deadline: April 30, Amount: $2,000. For undergraduate students pursing a degree in education with special consideration for students hoping to work with children with special needs.
- Society of Women Engineers Scholarship - Deadline: May 1, Amount: varies. For women pursuing a degree in engineering, technology or computer science,
Upcoming Events

- Texas Leadership Summit 2019 - Feb. 9, 2019 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., location TBD. Registration fee is $10 to secure your spot (which will be donated to the Student Emergency Fund).
- Harlem Globetrotters - Friday, Feb. 1 at 7:00 pm to 11:00 p.m. at the Frank C. Erwin Event Center
- 2019 Teresa Lozano Long Conference - Thursday, Feb. 21 to Friday, Feb. 22 at the Benson Latin American Collection, Second floor conference room
- Book Talk: "The Defeat of Black Power: Civil Rights and the National Black Political Convention of 1972" - Thursday, Feb. 21 at 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. at Garrison Hall, 4.100